

Hello! ☺ This important message is from the Interim Principal of Lockhart High School.

We are ecstatic to invite your student, you and our community to our Lockhart High School Parent Information Night on January 30, 2012 from 6:30-8:30 p.m.! The evening will begin with a $4.00 a plate meal down in Rom 105. Tickets will be pre-sold. At 5:55 p.m. we will kick off the evening in the Lion's Gym with performances by our Lionettes, Cheerleaders, Drum Line, AFJROTC Drill team, and Choir. At 6:30 we will have remarks by campus administrators and counselors; then parents will break up into informative sessions by the grade level of their students. We will have very specific details on course registration for sophomores and juniors, as well as information on Advanced Placement, ACC courses, and other information on meeting graduation requirements and college preparedness; Seniors and their parents will receive very relevant information on College Financial Assistance, scholarships, and other such information. We will have many visitors from colleges, universities, trade/technical schools, and representatives from military branches. Parents will also be able to register for Family Access. Our LHS counseling and teaching staff will be present, and information will be also shared in Spanish. Please come on out and join us in an Exciting Evening!
